Committee Reports

Athletics- Roger Garvin thanked the Mens Club for paying for the ball field expenses which included materials for the dugouts. The Mens club recognized Roger for his super job upgrading the ball fields.

He also reported on the successful Basketball Coaches' tournament which will be repeated next year. Roger thanked Keith and Dave for their hard work running the concessions that day.

CYO sports participants will have to pay an extra $10 surcharge for next year. This increase will also be announced at the Sports Banquet to be held at the St.Damian Parish Hall.

Old Business

Greg Migliori reported that the Senior Lunch on April 18 was a great success. He thanked Rob Nienhaus and his sons for helping out.

Tim Keener agreed to continue to chair the Fish Fry for next year. While profits were down from last year, parishioners , their guests and visitors enjoyed the good food and even better fellowship on Fish Fridays. Father Larry thanked the Mens Club for a check of $627 raised by the Fish Frys.

The Mens Club Constitution has been posted on the bulletin board and also at the parish website. It calls for yearly memberships dues ($2) which have to be paid for members to vote on elections. All present accepted the Constitution as revised.

New Business

Angela Hospice will be fundraising with a golf outing. In lieu of sponsoring a team, Ed Felzak suggest the Mens Club make a donation instead.

Open floor

Joe Wright, a former St. Damian football coach was buried this week.

The $41 Door Prize was won by Father Larry.

Father Larry also won the month's 50/50 drawing which totalled sales of $760.

Motion to adjourn was made by Doug Weslowsky and seconded by Dick Keklansky.
